

Deep Cover

Year: 1992

Rating: 7.0

A uniformed police officer is recruited by the DEA to infiltrate a drug smuggling ring looking to expand its operation.

Avg Sentiment: 0.752

Reviews + Sentiment

1. [Positive] This is exactly the film people need right now, in a world of division, hate & arguments, where so many seems to be unable to find common ground a film pops up that's as lovable as this. Bryce, Orlando...
2. [Positive] It's best not to think too much about the plot. Don't do that, and you'll find the movie quite fun. Bryce Howard, Orlando Bloom, and Nick Mohammed make for a believable trio; their chemistry works! Sea...
3. [Positive] First off, I don't normally rate Amazon original films, they're usually toss to be honest, but this is pretty decent actually. Cast was great, Orlando Bloom was brilliant, although his accent slipped a...
4. [Positive] A home run from Amazon Prime and a stark reminder that when the casting is right, even the silliest concept can be an absolute hit. 3 Misfits. 5 mobsters. 100 minutes of chaos, or 3 Wannabe actors. 4 c...
5. [Positive] Amongst the nonsense we've been fed for the last few years from the movie industry, we actually have a good film to watch. A breath of fresh air without the typical political rubbish we've been all ex...
6. [Positive] Really solid movie hilarious all the way thru with some action as well the storyline was a bit corky as well as the movie at times but it still definitely had a serious vibe at times wasn't really slo...
7. [Positive] With a premise funny enough to sustain its entire running time, this action comedy directed by Tom Kingsley is positioned as one of the most rewarding surprises of the year with a satisfying comedy th...
8. [Positive] I didn't expect to love this as much as I did, but Deep Cover is a chaotic crime-comedy with a huge heart and just the right dose of absurdity. The plot? An improv teacher (Bryce Dallas Howard) and her...
9. [Positive] It's a pretty decent comedy that doesn't rely on toilet humor or slap stick. The theme from the start may seem cliché, but they did a good job with it. Unlike most comedy that starts out strong and lo...
10. [Positive] Loved this film an escapade the love of the stage. Actors looking for the right part. Reminds me of the Pirandello play 7 actors looking for an author. In that style, it was fun to watch them improvise...

11. [Positive] What's scarier than being summoned up to the stage for a round of improv comedy? Going undercover in a ring of violent drug dealers? Such is the grimly hilarious reality in Deep Cover, an effective ne...

12. [Positive] Thoroughly enjoyed this. Great cast, ridiculous story that works perfectly. It's just a bit of light hearted fun that doesn't take itself seriously. Orlando is great and for me stole the show. Put it o...

13. [Positive] Had no idea what to expect going into this. Starts off like a very normal London based film about some budding comedians. But within half an hour dives down a completely different path. A path of awes...

14. [Positive] The Brits definitely know on how to make Crime Comedies! It's a proper laugh riot right from the minute the characters Marlon and Hugh walks onto that Improv stage sessions held by Kat. Tom did a real...

15. [Positive] I watched the first two minutes and thought this is rubbish. Was I wrong. This is one of the best scripted directed and definately acted films I have seen in years. The three main characters were more...

16. [Positive] I didn't know what to expect from this movie, except for the amount of talented actors in it. I was very pleasantly surprised by how much I enjoyed it. The premise was so outlandish, I never expected ...

17. [Neutral] First day of availability, streaming on Prime. We wanted to watch it mainly for Bryce Dallas Howard who is Kat. She is a mostly out-of-work actress who teaches improv. In truth we were mostly disappoin...

18. [Negative] I must have watched a different cut of this film to most others, unless they have ties to it. The deciding factor in us watching this film was a 6.7 rating on IMDb. I can see it's meant to be a comedy,...

19. [Negative] I only managed to get 45 minutes through this awful movie before turning it off. Supposedly a fast paced crime comedy, it is neither fast paced or funny. What it is, is just really stupid. Perhaps Ama...

20. [Positive] I loved this film. Engaging and very funny. I kept looking at one of the three lead actors and thinking 'he's very familiar, where DO I know him from' and, then, 'is that Legolas?' and it is. These da...

21. [Positive] Deep Cover delivers a razor-sharp fusion of gangster grit and biting comedy, confidently balancing outrageous action with smart, stylish storytelling. Every twist surprises, and every scene brims with...

22. [Positive] This may be the worst cop movie I've seen. I don't expect 100% feasibility, but this one is so far from reality it is senseless. Firearms, explosives, technology - it was all BS. The acting was good -...